On November 16th the club met at the DeLand Walmart. Despite the threat of rain we caravanned to the Spring Garden Horse Ranch. The breakfast was delicious and the scenery was beautiful.

There was even a couple of trotters. After breakfast and a quick meeting some members enjoyed mingling with the rescue horses on display. Members attended were B.A. Walters (MG-TD), Luke Coderre, Jere and Bonita Dotten (XK Jaguar), Dick and Judy Goudy (MG-TF 1500), Gary and Sylvia Thomas (XK Jaguar), Steve and Deb Bradley (62 MGA), Burt and Celia Martin, Frank and Laura Herbert (XK Jaguar), Gene and Jan Myszkowski and welcoming new member Brian Dungan (MGB). We even had a few members to taunt the rain gods by putting their tops down. We all had a wonderful rain free day.

Another Thanksgiving has come and gone. I hope everyone enjoyed their holiday and still had time to take in the Turkey Rod Run at the Daytona Speedway. If any member entered a car or attended the show tell us all about it.

The annual ABCC Christmas Party is Sunday Dec 15th and we hope to see everyone there. Remember to bring your covered dish and a gift if you want to participate in the Chinese gift exchange. There will be a gift given to the best holiday decorated British car. So dig out the decorations and dress up that beautiful British car of yours.

We heard from Craig Colby that the Ormond Beach Gaslight Parade on the 29th was a wonderful success. He reported 15 LBC's attended and they even had one of those pesky under the hood fires. Craig also said he may have some new members interested in joining the ABCC. Thanks Craig for all your contributions!
